

Your Love

Sonicflood

Your love, give me Your love
To fill up my heart
Your peace, give me Your peace
To comfort my soul
Your joy, give me Your joy
To shine through the dark
Change me, oh Lord
For my life is Yours

When I think of all You've done
Kept every promise
And kept me alive in Your Son
In the light of all this
I'll give my life I'll take up my cross
'Cause everything else I count but loss

There's nothing apart from You
That fills my longings
You satisfy me with truth
And I'm never wanting
I'll give my life I'll take up my cross
'Cause everything else I count but loss
