

Magic

Sonique

This is how it feels being alive.
Knowing that one day, you will die.
And this is how it feels falling in love.
And this is what that feels like coming undone.

You'll never know.
How beautiful.
You are...
This is what it feels like hearing that song.

When all time comes to a halt, yet somehow the world goes
On.
And this is what it feels like wanting to cry.
When no words can express how it makes you feel inside.

You'll never know.
How beautiful.
You are...
This is how it feels to think suicide

When darkness crosses your life and steals up your mind
And what it makes you think to end all your pain
Deceives your eyes from the magic of better days.
Don't you realize?

I wish you'd know.
How beautiful.
You are...
