

World Of Change

Sonique

Everybody wants to know that everything is gonna be alright
We're in all the things we do
And all the things that may not be so fine
Now I feel there's nothing left for me here
And everybody knows that you will never change... you...

In a world of change

Everybody wants to know that everything is gonna be... like you
Everybody wants to love, everybody wants to be... like you

Everybody make a sound
Understanding what's around
Everybody take a bow for the world of change

In a world of change

Everybody sing everybody pray
Everybody prays for the better day
In a world of change everything is possible
Not impossible yeah!

Everybody sing everybody pray
Everybody saves for the better day
In a world of change everything is possible
Not impossible yeah!

Everybody sing everybody pray
Everybody prays for the better day
In a world of change everything is possible
Not impossible yeah!

Every day and every night I say a little prayer for you...
