

I Know

Sonny James

I know two eyes that just adore you
I know two arms that long to hold you
And I know two lips that wanna kiss you
And I know one sincere loving heart that's beating just for you

I wish your heart could know how my heart aches for you
I try and try to tell you what I feel for you
But every time my courage fells and can't speak of love
But I know I'm crazy for your heart and this I'm certain of

I know two eyes, I know two eyes
And I know one sincere loving heart that's beating just for you
