

In Memory Of Louisa

Sonny James

In mem'ry of Luisa I save each tear I cry
I put them in an old fruit jar together with the falling star
In mem'ry of Luisa each day that passes by
Is longer than a year is long since my Luisa's gone
In mem'ry of Luisa I wear this faded rose
And in my sleep a broken heart wondering why we had to part
In mem'ry of Luisa I wander all alone
I walk a road that's much too long since my Luisa's gone my Luisa's gone
