

Just Ask Your Heart

Sonny James

Just ask your heart and it will tell you
What my heart want you to know
Ask your heart and it will tell you
It will tell you that I love you, love you so

There's no reason for you doubt me
When I'm away from home
There's not always time for writin'
But you should never feel alone

When you're lonesome for me, darling
And you think the tears will start
If you doubt that I still love you
Then darling, ask your heart

(Just ask your heart)
Darling, ask your heart
(And it will tell you)
It will tell you

(What my heart)
Darling, what my heart
(Want you to know)
Want you to know

Ask your heart
(Darling, ask your heart)
And it will tell you
(It will tell you)
It will tell you that I love you, love you so
