

Shackles And Chains

Sonny James

Shackles and chains shackles and chains
Oh that's all that remains shackles and chains
Now my home is where my heart is and that could be anywhere
But my heart is chained to memories and the thought you couldn't care
For no reason I could tell you were afraid to fall for me
But since I have fallen already you should stop be fair to me
Release these shackles these chains memories that remain
Oh oh shackles and chains

Oh this chain that binds me to you is the one I'll never break
When I say that I'll forget you my poor heart begins to ache
For no reason I could tell...
(Oh oh) shackles and chains
