

Hold On Let Go

SONOIO

Woke up today and I fall asleep now
Don't be afraid to deny what's missing
Lies, lies someone listens
Anyone pick up the phone

Changes stop, hold resistant
Nothing ever changes, only different
I'm inconsistent
Leave me alone

Hold on
Let go
Hold on
Let go
Hold on
Let go

I don't know
Hold on
Let go
Hold on
Let go

Ten years have passed, everything is the same
Forget the past everything is this day
My life, my perception
Everything into song

These days, days, days I cannot listen
Turn the other way make me disappear
Days of no reception, no prescription
No confrontation

Hold on
Let go
Hold on
Let go
Hold on
Let go

I don't know
Hold on
Let go
Hold on
Let go

I don't have answers
Only little things called possibilities
I stand corrected
Leave me alone

This thing is getting smaller, getting nearer, well, can't you see?
I need stabilities

Hold on
Let go

Hold on
Let go
Hold on
Let go

I don't know
Hold on
Let go
Hold on
Let go

I don't know
I don't know
