

No Fun

SONOIO

I am something different
I am whatever you want
I live life, live today
I don't know what I want

Here comes Saturday night
You're only making plans to stay inside
It's not that hard to see you live

Here comes rainy days
You waste it all away try to stay awake
It's not that hard to see you go

I don't like you like myself
I have nothing you don't
I stand right here by myself
I don't know what I want

Here comes Saturday night
You're only making plans to stay inside
It's not that hard to see you live
Only different, it's always different

Here comes rainy days
You waste it all away try to stay awake
It's not that hard to see you go
Always different

I'm tired of living a lie

Something else must be
Someone else must see
Nothing
