

Not worth remembering

SONOIO

I see you
You see me
I'm into receiving
Afraid to admit it
You're nowhere, too busy
I'm crawling
No kidding
The reason is nothing
I could be exploring
Without being pretentious
A case like this needs to
Will obviously see me
As someone who's lost it all

You see?
It's not like it used to be
Another day remembering
The way things used to be
Between you and me
I never want to feel like this
Never worth remembering
The way things used to be
Between you and me

I see you
You see me
I'm into believing
I know what I'm doing
I'm not going crazy
Without paying attention
What is around me?
Nothing that calls me
Ringing in my ears
How does it feel to be left to the thing you
No longer believe in?
It doesn't matter after all

You see?
It's not like it used to be
Another day remembering
The way things used to be
Between you and me
I never want to feel like this
It's not worth remembering
The way things used to be
Between you and me
