

Say Goodbye

Sophie Barker

Gradually I feel
Getting to know you well
As the daylight comes
As the daylight falls

Somehow we see
No matter how we feel
If it all breaks down
Will you be standing by me?

Don't want to fall in love
Again and again
Just want to let you go and
Numb the pain
We have to say goodbye and
Just be friends
Leaving, loving you has to be the hardest thing

Gradually I feel
Getting to know you well
As the walls break down
And the daylight comes

Don't want to fall in love
Again and again
Just want to let you go and
Numb the pain
We have to say goodbye and
Just be friends
Leaving, loving you has to be the hardest thing

Been around
And been around
And been around
And been around

Again and again
Again and again
I hit the wall again
Again and again
Again and again

Don't want to fall in love
Again and again
Just want to let you go and
Numb the pain
We have to say goodbye and
Just be friends
Leaving, loving you has to be the hardest thing

Don't want to fall in love
Again and again
Just want to let you go and
Numb the pain
We have to say goodbye and
Just be friends
Leaving, loving you has to be the hardest thing
