

My Puppet Heart

Sophie Ellis-Bextor

My puppet heart
You pull the strings
I'm not afraid of anything
I'm not afraid I'll fall apart
So long as only you control my puppet heart

You lift me up and I'm enlightened
The way you move me through your world
You say, there's no need to be frightened
New horizons is unfold (when I'm with you)

Circus fight
Twirling round
Dive into spotlight
We're synchronized tonight by your hand

Reaching height in silhouette
Such a perfect line
We pirouette in time
When you're holding tight my puppet heart

Involuntary
But I don't care
I look up to the sky you're always standing there
The sunlight comes and the day beings
The way I feel inside is only everything

You lift me up and I'm enlightened
The way you move me through your world
You say, there's no need to be frightened
New horizons is unfold (when I'm with you)

Circus fight
Twirling round
Dive into spotlight
We're synchronized tonight by your hand

Reaching height in silhouette
Such a perfect line
We pirouette in time
When you're holding tight my puppet heart

It's so beautiful to just free-fall
To just let go and put my trust in it all
Cause I know
That you're keeping me safe from harm

I give it up and let you be my guide
I'm gonna jump into the open wide
Spinning by
Oh but I've never felt so calm

Circus fight
Twirling round
Dive into spotlight
We're synchronized tonight by your hand

Reaching height in silhouette
Such a perfect line
We pirouette in time
When you're holding tight my puppet
Holding tight my puppet
Holding tight my puppet
Holding tight my puppet heart
