Going Home

Sophie Zelmani

Not very often have we met But the music's been too bad Can only sense happiness if the music is sad

So, I'm going home I must hurry home Where a life goes on

We're too old to make a mess Dreams will keep me young Old enough to stress Only mirrors tell the time

So, I'm going home I must hurry home So will my life go on

Yes, I'm going home Going home alone And your life goes on

So, I'm going home I must hurry home So will my life go on

Yes, I'm going home Going home alone And your life goes on