

I Love You

Sophie Zelmani

I love you,
I love you
Please, please get up for me You become my sorrow when you go to sleep
You are sleeping away from me

Tell me,
just tell me
who is there with you and can you show me
please show me
when you're taken to Because it's taking the most of you

Tell me, tell me...

I get up early,
to face your morning trying to inhale your day
And I'm pouring
my prayers in your coffee keeping
other thoughts away Thoughts that could take you away

Tell me, tell me...

I'm waiting for my life with you Waiting in and out for you and in my steps there's more I do Steps that wonder where they'll go I'm waiting,
I'm waiting,
I'm waiting for you

I walk by sun
I walk by rain
spring and fall
then home again
to tell you that summer's here
and that I'll die
if you don't care I'll die right now
if you won't if you won't... meet me here

There's only moments left of you,
only moments of me too,
don't tell me then
we died of love
I'm not hearing anything about love

If I'll be gone,
If I'll be gone you may stand
