

My

Sophie Zelmani

My mind is just where you are
You are, you are
And I'm tired to go that far

My heart beats so fast
So fast, so fast
Slow it down, so it will last

My dreams always
Always always confuse
They are to no use

I'm not going
Going going nowhere
Not until you're here

My life is giving
Giving giving back to me
All reasons to be

My love is so hard
So hard, so hard to feel
And it won't ever leave
