Sophie Zelmani

She was my best friend She was my best friend We won't reach up again We broke all our plans

You've got a face, a soul, a name but if you stay we both will go insane Nostalgia

We can't talk about old days everytime our children'll play What kind of memories becomes of such a melancholy day

You've got a face, a soul, a name but if you stay we both will go insane Nostalgia, you're just good for one day

I tried to leave you many times I almost succeeded once Dreams are coming one by one to ask me what I've done Now I hear it in the wind when old news are coming in She did so well without me but I wonder if she's free

You've got a face, a soul, a name but if you stay we both will go insane You've got a face, a soul, a name but if you stay we both will go insane Nostalgia, you're just good for one day Nostalgia, you're just good for one day
