

So Long

Sophie Zelmani

I've had my eyes
I've had my ears
To steal from you
For so long

For a sake to fill
A hole that kills
You've made me thrill
I've been wandering

So long
So long, so long
Now I burn
And when i yearn

Every while without you
Is too long
Now I'm free
You made me see

It had to be so long
Because I'm gonna love you
So long
So long, so long
