

Hold Me

Sophie

Yesterday I woke up and I saw you in a special light
In the dark I realized that you're someone who's hard to find

Now how can I tell you, trying to find a perfect way to tell
Lay your hands upon my soul, just hold me in your arms again

Just hold me
Hold me in your arms so tight don't let me go now
Hold me
Hold me to your heart tonight don't let me down
Just hold me

What's the use of freedom if I can't have you I wonder why Locked inside the prison of your heart there's nothing else I'd like
