

Somnambulist's Secret Bardo-life

Sopor Aeternus

I have no body and I feel no pain for I am no longer here again.
Now I can fly throughout the widest space finally I'm set free from all my chains.
A farewell to heaven and a farewell to old hell,
from now on we shall never meet again.
Neither light nor dark are here to know my way,
there'll be no more sadness and there'll no more pain.
I can fly, yes, I can fly and I'm no longer here,
may this flesh stay down there forever,
I shall not waste a thought.
No, I do no longer care..
