

Half

Soraya

It might take sometime, don't ask why some things just happen, in the blink of an eye all that we have has a moment's guarantee a transient pleasure destined to flee

Today I will love you, like we've only one night today I will give you half of my life. Take it with you wherever you go. Sit it next to you when you're not feeling whole.

It comes when it wants, all discretions aside just when you find your groove the earth begins to slide

Today I will love you, like we've only one night today I will give you half of my life. Take it with you and keep it alive treasure this moment, we stole from our lives.

I can count on my hand what I hold in faith this journey is programmed to give and to take but I choose to believe and I choose not to be used I choose to take the fall and I've chosen you

Today I will love you, like we've only one night today I will give you half of my life take it with you wherever you go sit it next to you when you're not feeling whole

Today I will love you, like we've only one night today I will give
this moment, we stole from our lives
