Need To Be Found

Soraya

Open your arms, take me inside
Cover me with affection, cover me with your light

I know that I try to be strong
But I'm running on vapors, I won't make it home
Don't make me say it, there are no words when I'm down
I need you to love me, I need to be found

I feel the weight pressing, my chest feels so tight
So close to breaking my pride

I know that I try to be strong
But I'm running on vapors, I won't make it home
Don't make me say it, there are no words when I'm down
I need you
I need to be found
