

Trains Go Everywhere

Sorry Boys

Don't speak to me about anything
If you don't wan' me whole I wanna know

Leave everything to spend life with me
If you don't wan' me whole you better go

Be ready at every moment
To bury me as your lover
You know me I'm so impatient

There are so many women
Waiting for a faithful husband
You don't need to look for love
I'm sure

Trains go everywhere
Trains go to your home

I'm ready at every moment
To marry you as a lover
I want to be with you and
To spend life with you

I'm very in love with you woman
I'm very in love with you woman
Remember that

Trains go everywhere
Trains go to your home
