

Winter

Sorry Boys

(...) He said, that all things he felt
It's winter time, my Only One, the saddest time
It's winter time, my Only One, the saddest time
I feel you (...)
I feel you like nobody else
I feel you under the snow
I feel you, I do
My heart is beating under the snow
Your heart is freezing
MY heart is breathing under the snow
Your heart is leaving
It's winter time, my Only One, the saddest time
It's winter time, my Only One, the saddest time
I feel you (...)
I feel you like nobody else
I feel you under the snow
I feel you, I do
My heart is beating under the snow
Your heart is freezing
MY heart is breathing under the snow
Your heart is leaving
I feel you, I do
I feel you, like nobody else
Like nobody else
Like nobody else, I feel you
Like nobody else, I do
Like nobody else, I feel you
I feel you, I do
My heart is bleeding under the snow
Your heart is breathing
My heart is freezing under the snow
Your heart is leaving
I feel you, I do
I feel you, I do
