

Good For You

Soul Asylum

It brings me peace
When you're asleep
Alone together
In a moment that lasts forever

And when you smile
It brings me peace
It's like everything
I ever wanted

And I want to be so bad to be good for you
I could be good for you
I think I'd be good for you
Yes, I think I'd be good for you

Just like orange juice
A walk around the lake
Like putting to good use
Something you thought was fake

And the afterlife
Who really cares?
This one's good enough
Just as long as you're there

And I want so bad to be good for you
I could be good for you
I think I'd be good for you
Yes, I could be good for you

And what is sacred
This I know
It's just me and you
On a train moving slow

To Heaven

It's just like my momma
She used to say
When I told her
That everything's okay

She'd just say "Good for you
That's so good for you
That's good for you
I think it'd be good for you"

Yeah, I think I'd be good for you
I could be good for you
I could be good to you
I think I could
I think I could

I could be good for you

I think I could
I could be good for you, for you

I could be good for you

I think I could be good

Think I could be good

Think I could be good for you (2x)

Yes, I think I'd be good for you
