

I want to live with you
In the fifth dimension
In a dream I've never had
'Cause I just can't live like this
In a world like this
I just want to kiss goodbye

R: But we are not of this world
And there's a place for us
Stuck inside this fleeting moment
Tucked away where no one owns it
Wrapped up in a haste and by mistake got thrown away
And oh, I am so homesick
But it ain't that bad
'Cause I'm homesick for the home I've never had

And though I sometimes get annoyed
I know just where I'm at
This is my song of joy
And now I know there are no secret tricks
No correct politics
Just liars and lunatics

R:

Though I would not take it personally
It's just the child in me
Who never really knew how much I had
Woe is me, I am so homesick
But it ain't that bad,
'Cause I'm homesick for the home I've never had
