I ain't working nine to five
I ain't going out to plant no seed
I don't ask what I'm supposed to do, cause I've got everything
I want
But I don't have anything I need

Well I do my thing in a palace full of kings
Do it in an old broken-down shack
I'd give you the shirt off my back, show you where your systems lack Meet you in the lap of luxury

I get off the floor and walk it off Get back to a place that I can see Well I'm coming back for more abuse Meet you in the lapâ \in " the lapâ \in " the lap of luxury

Now I'm working noon to midnight

Now my precious seeds they have been sown

I don't ask when they're supposed to grow 'cause I got everythi ng I know

I don't know anything I need

No exploitation, paid vacation All I want's communication That ain't too hard to see

When the van stops rolling, the band starts rocking It ain't too pretty, it ain't too shocking but I've got everything I need

I get off the floor and walk it off Get back to a place that I can see Well I'm coming back for more abuse Meet you in the lap of luxury
