See You Later

Soul Asylum

I guess I'll see you later Sweet manipulator And how I thank you dearly For helping me see clearly

Yes sir no sir let me go Sir I don't even want to know Sir I've had all that I can take today

But I found out so long ago It don't matter if it shows And it's up in the air tonight Yes it's up in the air tonight

Now you're anticipating That nostalgia's waiting With your social statement Boxed up in the basement

Yes ma'am no ma'am let me go ma'am I don't even give a damn Ma'am I suppose I'll stand another day

I booked my flight despite my plans I hope this flight it never lands And it's up in the air tonight Yes it's up in the air tonight

Cause i've got all night To lie here on the floor I got all night Just like the night before So make it soon And I guess I'll see you later We're so up in the air tonight
