

The Incumbent

Soul Coughing

New York, New York, I won't go back
Indelible reminder of the steel I lack
I gave you seven years what did you give me back?
A jaw-grind disposition to a panic attack
New York, New York, I won't go back
Indelible reminder of the steel I lack
I gave you seven years, what did you give me back?
A jaw-grind disposition to a panic attack
New York, New York, I won't go back
Indelible reminder of the steel I lack
I gave you seven years, what did you give me back?
A jaw-grind disposition to a panic attack
On this side the incumbent
And who quoth
There's only one everything
Red sucker mouth
On this side the incumbent
And who quoth
There's only one everything
Red sucker mouth
New York, New York, I won't go back
Indelible reminder of the steel I lack
