

It brings me to tears
'cuz things didnt go the way we planned even though we said forever but forever wasn't on our side so now I have to say goodbye and it hurts inside

Even though i know you're probably the best thing for me
Still I must go and face this road of Lonely Sooo, as I wipe this tears from my eyes
I want you to know I love you so dont take it personal

Ive got to be leavin'
Yes, im on my way
Ive gotta go now
But I wish I could stay
And I wanna thank u for the times that you've been giving me
You see Ive got a long way to go
And it such a lonely road

If I make it through these days Still be afraid of tomorrow Im not sure where I go But you'll be on my mind, baby
All the time

Even though I know you're probably the best thing for me
Still I must go and face this road of Lonely
As I wipe this tears from my eyes
I want you to know I love you
So dont take it personal

Ive gotta be leavin
yes Im on my way
Ive gotta go now but I wish I could stay
And I wanna thank you for the times that you've been giving me
You see Ive got a long way to go
and it such a lonely road

(talking) Sweetie, I have to go and I know this isnt the way we planned things But things arent always the way you plan
You know, but Im looking forward to coming back to you and when I do, things are going to be just the way it used to be

Ive gotta be leavin
yes Im on my way
Ive gotta go now but I wish I could stay
And I wanna thank you for the times that you've been giving me
You see Ive got a long way to go and it such a lonely road (3x)
