

Kiss The Walls

SoulDecision

I'd rather kiss the walls,
Than have to say i'm sorry
Even when i'm right , i'm wrong
Don't deny,
You left while i was sleepin'
Put out my lively creepin'
No , i can't sleep at all.

You don't know what it means to sacrifice.
Yeahh, you just whant to belive that you're always right.

So i'm leavin' , must have been dreamin'
I thought you belived in me at all you don't even sing my songs you just humm along, you can't wait till' they are done,
Tell me how ,can i love someone when i'd rather kiss the walls.

You kiss me in the sky to keep my arms around you to let my love surround you but you kept you're love aside.

You bled me dry took all the love left in me took all you're love to give me and wrapped it up in lies

Baby, you don't know what it means
To sacrifice
Baby, you just want to believe That you're always right

So I'm leaving
Must have been dreaming
I thought you believed in me and all
But you don't even sing my songs
You just hum along
You can't wait 'til they are done
Tell me how can I love someone
When I'd rather kiss the walls?

When I'm wrong, you're right
But I'll be leaving you tonight
I'm so right, and you're so wrong
You can be right here and all alone

Cause I'm leaving
Must have been dreaming
But you don't even sing my songs
You just hum along
You can't wait 'til they are done

So I'm leaving
Must have been dreaming

No, you don't even sing my songs
You just hum along
You can't wait 'til they are done
Oh no, tell me how can I love someone When I'd rather kiss the wall?
