First Row in Hell

Souldrainer

Today was the very first day that I felt alone that I felt it s lipping away Today was the very first time I toyed with the idea of throwing it all away Today I felt a scorching flame, kneel down and obey misery

My ego was thrown in my face This is the first row in hell

I can not feel, not see the pain
Why can't it stop? What's going on?
Today I was told that I was weak
My only goal was to stay far away from pain
Why can't it stop? What's going on?
All is lost now
