Rise of the Fallen

Up from the ashes of despair and loss Years of enslavement now come with a higher cost Bureaucracy, you chose to rule with fear Now feel the wrath that comes from all those years

You choose to shut your eyes, now repent

Rise of the fallen, suffer the hand you dealt yourself Rise of the fallen, the fallacy of fractured wealth Rise of the fallen, ignore the parts of your machine Rise of the fallen, drink from the fountain of your poisoned dr eam

Destroy the world and all the wars we're on Ashes to ashes, dust to dust will come I, the destroyer of both worlds Born from the womb of insult I come

You choose to shut your eyes, now repent You choose to shut your eyes, now repent

Rise of the fallen, suffer the hand you dealt yourself Rise of the fallen, the fallacy of fractured wealth Rise of the fallen, ignore the parts of your machine Rise of the fallen, drink from the fountain of your poisoned dr eam

Drink from the fountain of your poisoned dream Bled from your machine Choke on the spirits that you tried to eat Now on you they feed

You build the part, now you play it We become the master, drown in all the laughter Law from below, now you obey it Death comes never faster, this is the disaster
