

Touching the Void

Soulfly

I'm touching the void
I seek and destroy, to be reborn
I'm touching the void
The ghost of troy, burned and destroyed
I'm touching the void
Bleed and destroy, the sacrifice of war...

I'm touching the void
I creep and destroy, the paradise lost
I'm touching the void
I breed and destroy, no more idols to burn
I'm touching the void
I scream and destroy, I follow the storm
I'm touching the void
I've killed them before, I'll kill them again...

Void!!!
The return of the wicked...
Void!!!
The revenge of the sickest...

I'm touching the void
From stone and crust, to ashes and dust
I'm touching the void
The Sycophants will fall in the doom of it all...
