

Obey Your Master

Soulitude

Alain:

The World has gone insane
But who's the God to blame
We are pieces in a game
And you shall obey

Loren:

Dictators in sheep's clothes
So eager for your votes
They promise you the world
But saints don't exist at all

Max:

Pray for nothing
Say amen to all they preach
Put on your knees and kiss
the holy ring of fear

Marco:

Obey Your Master
Obey Your Master

Solo: Carlos Alvarez

Alain:

Abduction of your brain
Have faith my little ones
You follow every step
We will save your soul

Loren:

Under one flag we shan't be split
The same old song the same old shit
Don't swim against the flow
Remember thinking's not allowed

Max:

They rape your mind
They say the words you wanna hear
Millions of minions
so fucking blind to see
