

The Road

Soulitude

Max:

Day after day living to survive
Trying to find just a beam of light
The world is a grave of ashes
Everything is lost

Loren:

Wake up again in this barren land
Moving in silence to make no sound
Fear of the most depraved side
Of the human kind

Max:

The road is long and tiring
The road goes on and on
We'll keep forever walking
Until we find the shore

Loren:

All that we knew has already gone
The end of all days is about to come
Why in the name God
We cling to a chance of life

Solo: Felix Neumann

Max:

The road is long and tiring
The road goes on and on
We'll keep forever walking
Until we find the shore

Max/Loren:

The road is long and tiring
The road goes on and on
We'll keep forever walking
Until we find the shore
