The Interrogation

Souls of Mischief

Hieroglyphics baby Yeah, yeah!

Yo, we delicate precision I erect the prison
Make you respect the wisdom
Man I'm chillin' with these checks I'm gettin'
Cashola when I raps over tracks, yo I mack
Just to break a ho back, we spin that ass over
Stop hatin' before my dogs mash on ya
Niggas claimin' they ballers they can't even sack dosia
No model chicks, just a trick, some wack (bova?)
No range rover just a moped and a crashed nova
Y'all speak hard but then you leave scarred
When you see my deep squad it mean you fi'n to meet god
Is you a retard, it get heavy when pleas start
Snatch your weak broad then we playin' leapfrog

Yeah we sometimes explicit

Never complicit, bust it

I gets busy usin' the arts of mystics

Break the shit down then I start to twist it

Blow it, into the wind

When I touch the microphone it's a win-win, situation

You placed in I'm goin' for the ball

It's all about concentration and placement

Boxin' niggas out rockin' any house

Any time, any where, any how, nigga feel me now?

Phenomenon, for the mash on the feminine

Off the sour mash cobwebs in my calabash

Blast on you scalawags

Then I'll blow up some power plants

Don't have to ask you yo how was that

Multiple mentals, possessive of all essentials
Movin' on you minstrels
Man this what we off in to
This what we was meant to do
Uh yeah we inter-continental

Melt bones, flesh and gristle
Put away your pistol
Cause you gon' feel us when we hit you
Nigga we the hiero crew, marks

Αy,

They ain't got the heart to battle us
Our challengers stay talentless
I'm imbalanced fkin' (funabulous?)
No need to counteract you counter-attack us you're kinda wack
Engaged in static with the lymphatic pimp at it
Large and the thought you was still swift at it rhythmatic
With hard shit
Wordsmith versatile while jewel of the nile style

Rack and pinion steering veerin' towards the curb &
Police runnin', machine-gunnin'
Gasoline mark fuhrman, start burnin', leave nothin'
No evidence just dead presidents
The fed's nemesis treacherous evil residents
Who got weapons with scopes on 'em op' squash it
They deep as the exorcist tryin' to cause a closed coffin
