

All the Way Down

Soulsavers

Warm morning breeze seems to whisper your name
Stoned in the sunlight I know it's a shame
Fading away in the ..crystalline dawn
Upon six white horses the ..carriage is drawn
All the way down
Seems like I can't come up no ..more
Won't be happy again
Cold morning stars seem to ..shimmer unknown
The tide takes you under, you'..re rolling alone
Follow the tune that the siren would sing
Follow the moon do you find anything
All the way down
Pardon me for praying hard
For crying out loud
Warm morning breeze seems to whisper your name
Stoned in the sunlight I know it's a shame
Drifting away in the crystalline dawn
Upon six white horses the carriage is drawn
Seems like I can't come up no more
Won't be happy again
All the way down
