

Can't Catch the Train

Soulsavers

Wait, wait the race has been numbered So soon to go where the horses have gone Lay down your head, like a baby to slumber
Can't make it home anymore, oh no
Can't catch the train

With sorrows to suffer unknown Drawing the stars to a close

As sure as the shovel is blind, deaf and digging
One day you're hung at the end of the rope Hat in your hand, near the station just begging Don't have the fare anymore, oh no
Can't catch the train

calling from beyond the pale shipwrecked, the dancers will ..crawl sing, sing for the new day ..appearing give us one more for the ..memories you lost sing for the night and how quickly it's nearing

can't make it home anymore, ..oh no
can't catch the train
