

Lately I don't hear so much
My mind just keeps on racing all the time
Lately I don't see so well
My conscious is beginning to unwind

Sail with me, we can fly away
Let's stay together
Leave your soul behind
Sail with me, let's go all away
Just give me one more chance
Don't say good bye

Lately I don't feel you here
As an emptiness inside that's all too much
Lately I don't have the time
My patience is beginning to run dry

Sail with me, we can hide away
Let's stay together
Leave this world behind
Sail with me, let's go all away
Just give me one more chance
Don't say good bye
Don't say good bye

Lately I don't care so much
I found myself to staring at the floor
Lately I can't feel your touch
I'm cold and empty like I was before

Sail with me
Sail with me
