

Longest Day

Soulsavers

I was walking home alone late the other night
I couldn't see a single star in the sky
Oh, they must be too high
Shadows dance around me in the dark
Don't stop

This could be the longest day
And the night has yet to come
This must be the door to take

This could be the longest day
And the night has yet to come
This must be the door to take

Was eleven years to change what had been lost
One single shot was fired at what a cost
Oh, at what a cost

This could be the longest day
And the night has yet to come
This must be the door to take

This could be the longest day
And the night has yet to come
This must be the door to take

I wanna run
I better run now
Run
As far as I can
