

The Last Time

Soulsavers

One hand in my pocket
One foot in the grave
Standing here, waiting to be saved
This will be the last time
Scratching my patience away

Oh no, oh no
Just take your time now, take it slow
Oh no, oh no
Take your time here, take it slow

Have you ever follow Jesus?
He lives downtown L.A
He's coming, he'll be here
It's where he prays
This will be my last time
Scratching and sapping my troubles away

Just take your time here, take it slow
Oh no, oh no
Take your time here, take it slow

This will be my last time
Just say good bye
Time you know
Just passed you by
This will be my last time
