

Shattered

Soulsister

You can run to him
Gratify your whim
Go now
Put your soul at rest
You can run to him
Why don't you
Take a dive and swim
It's no use
leaning on the past
But everytime I think of you
I'll sit and hum this bitter tune

It's all been shattered babe
It's all been wasted now
It seems we've had it girl
Why don't we face it now
All the calls I made
All the letters that I have written
All the confidence I gained
All the nails I have bitten
It's all been shattered babe
It's all been wasted now

I straighten out my face
I try to cover
Every trace
It's so hard
To get you off my mind
In spite of what you
Put me through
How could I keep
From loving you

It's all been shattered babe
It's all been wasted now
It seems we've had it girl
Why don't we face it now
All the silly lies
All the comfort I was given
All the secret little smiles
That made my life worth living
It's all been shattered babe
It's all been wasted now
