

Not Alone

Soulstice

If you want to see my soul where it's at
It's gonna take a key
To unlock the door inside of me
Struggle I do with what is called sanity
It's so hard it's so hard it's so hard to be me
Sometimes
I am not alone I am not alone
I am not alone I am not alone
I saw a face in the mirror but I realized
It was my own
Through the depth of the looking glass
I saw somebody staring back at me
Hey open up the door
Battle I do with what is called vanity
It's so hard it's so hard it's so hard to see
Sometimes
Oh and I know that you will always be there for me
Suddenly subtly certainly so
Suddenly subtly suddenly
I am not alone I am not alone
I am not alone
I am not alone
I
Not
Alone
