Love At Sundown

Sound Storm

Before death my life's over Such as the dead which passed away How many years to search you 'round Hidden by lights down on the ground

You're a smile in my mind, living and dying for you You're a wound of my heart, bleeding

Curtains were off and you came out Blue velvet eyes against blood My scarlet tears were lost at all Countess of light shall take my soul

On my way (from the past 'til the day I will die) you'll be a s weet sound

All my life (when the moon takes the place of the sun) is the ${\tt l}$ ove at sundown
