

Better Things

South

Look at me acting in the drama of your life
I stumble over something then I fk my lines
So what will I say?

The better things I have to say will fall to you
The better things I have to say will fall to you
You seem to light up everything in my view
I don't know just what it is I'm thinking about
The better things I have to say will fall to you

If what I said does not amount to much don't doubt your gut
Suppose at least that this is worth these lines are unrehearsed

The better things I have to say will fall to you
The better things I have to say will fall to you
You seem to light up everything in my view
I don't know just what it is I'm thinking about
The better things I have to say will fall to you

Days seem to last forever but the weeks fly by Feel the conversation treble in the space that we find
Days seem to last forever but the weeks fly by

The better things I have to say will fall to you
The better things I have to say will fall to you

Fall to you
