Southpaw

Where do you go My medic
Why does my soul
Need cosmetics
How can you move
When you're so static Give me a clue
And speak to me

What do you see
When you are Looking at me
Your silence is annoying me
Give me a sign
And speak to me

What do you know
About the things
I don't show
About my alter ego
It grows and grows

And one day
It'll take over me
And I'll be finally free
And then I'll reach out for your hand
To take me
Out of this land
I'll understand
