

Lost

Southside Johnny & The Asbury Jukes

Please think twice if you're leaving
If you ever loved me at all
Please reconsider
Oh I'm so lost

No one could blame you
If you're wearin' down
It's not the life you asked for
This trouble you have found
Please hold on a little longer
Girl, I'm so lost
So lost

I'd tell you to walk on out
If I only had the strength
You're the only light in this darkness
The only hope that's left in me

I feel like crying
The way you carried me through
I can only hope someday, baby
I can return this kindness to you

Hold on, sweet child
Don't be cross
Love you forever
Baby, right now
I'm just lost
