

Passion Street

Southside Johnny & The Asbury Jukes

Streetlight dances on the sidewalk
As another day fades to black
I check my reflection in the satin black finish
Of a double-parked Cadillac

Radio blasting from a doorway
I fall in with that beat
Moving down Passion Street
Down Passion Street

Neon Leon in his shark skin
With some downtown debutante
Fat Tony bouncin' on the corner
Gets you anything you want
Yea everybody's looking for something
And this is where the loose ends meet
Here on Passion Street
On Passion Street

Yea when I'm out here, everything feels right
Oh I know true love waits for me
On Passion Street tonight

Streets sound rolls like thunder
Electricity in the air
Angel ascends from a subway station
Like the answer to my prayer
Saxophone screaming from a nightclub
Lifts us off our feet
And blows us down Passion Street
Down Passion Street
