Trapped Again

Southside Johnny & The Asbury Jukes

Here I am, baby, right where you found me Trying to break these chains that surround me If I look a little different it's 'cause I've changed Half-painted pictures are all that remains I can't let my past mistakes, let 'em bring me down I ain't waitin' on no angel of mercy I tried my best and I can't help myself I'm trapped again I can't get out without losing you I'm trapped again Why can't you feel what I'm going through? I'm trapped again I need an answer, girl, can't you see? I'm trapped again Come and rescue me Monday morning came so fast What a fool to think that dreams would last Close my eyes and it's still so clear Remember the night, girl, the world disappeared Can't let the hand of fate, let it drag me down I can't get no angel of mercy I came to stay but I got swept away I'm trapped again I can't get out without losing you I'm trapped again Why can't you feel what I'm going through? I'm trapped again I need an answer, girl, can't you see? I'm trapped again Come and rescue me Can't let the hand of fate, let it drag me down I can't get no angel of mercy I came to stay but I got swept away I'm trapped again I can't get out without losing you I'm trapped again Why can't you feel what I'm going through? I'm trapped again I need an answer, girl, can't you see? I'm trapped again Come and rescue me
