

Weightlessness never gave
Anyone a reason to float
Gravity is the enemy
The enemy is sinking by boat
Gravity is the enemy,
The enemy is gravity here
Holiness never gave anyone a reason to pray
Loneliness never gave anyone a reason to cry
Gravity is the enemy,
The enemy is gravity here
You've lost all the feeling
In your heart and soul
It's not enough to cry
Gravity is the enemy,
The enemy is gravity here
You've lost all the feeling in
Your heart and soul
It's not enough to cry
Philosophies they never give
Anyone a reason to gloat
Gravity is the enemy
The enemy is after my boat
Gravity is the enemy,
The enemy is gravity here
You've lost all the feeling
In your heart and soul
It's not enough to cry
